Text sermon questions, during the sermon, to (602) 824-8030

10:4 Slack work leads to lacking what you need. But diligent work makes you prosperous - have what you need & maybe more.

“Diligent” means persistent, hard work, that produces.

12:24 Diligent work will get you promoted. But slack work will keep you at low level jobs.

You should work hard to produce all that you can.

14:23 Hard work versus goofing around or distractions, is the difference of having plenty versus not enough.

Colossians 3:22-24, Work heartily even when employer is not watching.

18:9 Slack work is closely related to being destructive.

Leaving work undone that could have been done can hurt you and others.

28:19-20 Be faithful, persistent, in productive work, instead trying to get rich quick or make easy money.

Be a person your family can rely on to provide what is needed.

12:11 He who pursues unproductive things lacks sense.

What do you want to change?
