That You Are in Christ Is Everything That's Good about You

1 Corinthians 1:26-31

Christian Sanich, 9/8/2019

Text sermon questions, during the sermon, to (602) 824-8030

1:26 Consider who you were when God called you into Christ.

1:27-28 God chose, the things that are not, so that He may invalidate the things that are.

Even though you may not have all the right qualities to get chosen to be part of an elite group in the culture, God chose that these very types of people could be part of His people.

Superb worldly qualities can't make anyone right with God.

1:29 So that no flesh may boast before God

1:30 But from Him you-all are in Christ Jesus, who became wisdom to us from God, also righteousness, and holiness, and redemption.

It's Christ who has become these things for us - wisdom, righteousness, holiness, and redemption. So, apart from Christ no one gets any of these things from God.

1:31 The one who boasts, should boast in the Lord Jesus Christ.

Have you thought you are better than anyone, based on your gifts?

Have you gotten into some sub-group in the church that you think makes you special?

This world's values don't have anything to offer toward how we live in Christ.

Is there any way, in your thinking or behavior, you are bringing the world's values into the church?
